"The Living Years"

This is my first day back in the office after our trip to North Carolina (many thanks to Erin Hill-Van Horne for filling in for me. She's terrific!). Most of you know by now that we had to make a trip to Wilmington, NC because Erin's father passed away. It is always hard saying farewell to one whom you have loved but it was a joyful time to spend with our children and nieces and nephews who gathered for the funeral. As Erin and I drove back to Michigan, we had a lot of time to talk, but also a lot of time to listen to the radio. As we drove up our street, the last song we heard before arriving home was an old favorite of mine by Mike and the Mechanics called "The Living Years." The last verse and the chorus go like this:

I wasn't there that morning
When my Father passed away
I didn't get to tell him
All the things I had to say
I think I caught his spirit
Later that same year
I'm sure I heard his echo
In my baby's new born tears
I just wish I could have told him in the living years

Say it loud, say it clear (oh say it clear)
You can listen as well as you hear
It's too late when we die
To admit we don't see eye to eye

Of course it's a song about a son who wishes that he had told his father all that was on his mind and heart before his father passed away. We are forever grateful that Erin had a wonderful week with her dad and stepmother a few weeks before he passed, but how often do we get that in our lives? How many of our loved ones pass away with things unsaid or unheard by those most important to them?

One of the great joys of our faith is that when we gather for a funeral or memorial service, we are not saying "goodbye," but just "farewell for now." For we do believe in the resurrection to eternal life and in that grand reunion in the life to come. But that should relieve us of the responsibility to speak with honesty and love to one another while we have the chance in this life. This life is where we learn to build the relationships that will last into the next life with God and with one another. We don't have to agree on everything, we don't have to see "eye to eye." But we do have to love one another. And I think it's best to open ourselves to love each other in this world.

Grace and Peace,

Mark

We rely on many members and friends to help Sundays run smoothly and be a good worship experience for those attending our church. If for some reason you are not able to help on the day originally selected, please find a replacement or someone to trade with, and let the church office know. The yearly list of volunteers can be found at www.fpcrich.com, under "Living the Faith", then "volunteer schedule". Or call Julie for a list of names. Thank you!

RECOGNITION SUNDAY PICNIC!!

June 10 * following worship

Our end-of-the-season Sunday will be a busy day, with worship followed by the picnic!! Membership and Fellowship will be supplying pulled pork and drinks.

If everyone would please bring their favorite side dish, salad, or dessert, the rest of us who will be eating it would be grateful!
Although we'll have some extras if needed,
please also bring your own tableware.

We'll have activities for the kids right after worship, while the picnic gets set up. Really all we have to do now is keep fingers crossed for sunshine! Hope to see you on this glorious Recognition Sunday!

PW PURPOSE: Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible Study, to support the mission of the church worldwide, to work for justice and peace and to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (USA) and witnesses to the promise of God's Kingdom.

IT'S TIME!!
Open up the attic,
break thru the basement ...

RUMMAGE SALE!!!

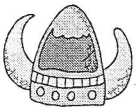

As a place to unload your unwanted (but still good) items, don't forget our Rummage Sale, which will take place

May 4th, 9 to 3 and 5 to 7, and May 5th, 9 to 11:00.

Set up is Monday evening, May 1st, and your contributions can be brought any day after that, through Thursday! The sign-up sheet for workers will be posted on the bulletin board in the Gull Prairie Room on the PW section.

We'll need people to sort and price all week. The sale begins Friday morning, so we need salespeople here at 8:30 a.m. to greet our line-up of customers. On Friday evening and Saturday morning, the cost for whatever can be stuffed into a grocery bag, is $2 and $1, respectively.

A crew of workers can come in about 11:00 Saturday morning to help dismantle the sale and pack up the unsold goods (we really need help with this part).

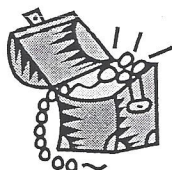

SET-UP AND BRING IN TIMES:

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday ~ 10 to 5 & 6 to 8

When you drop off your items, let us help you put your donations on the appropriate tables!

PLEASE: No TV's - No Computer Screens -

FUN WITH FINANCE!

For behold, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone.
The flowers appear on the earth, the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

Song of Solomon 2:11-12

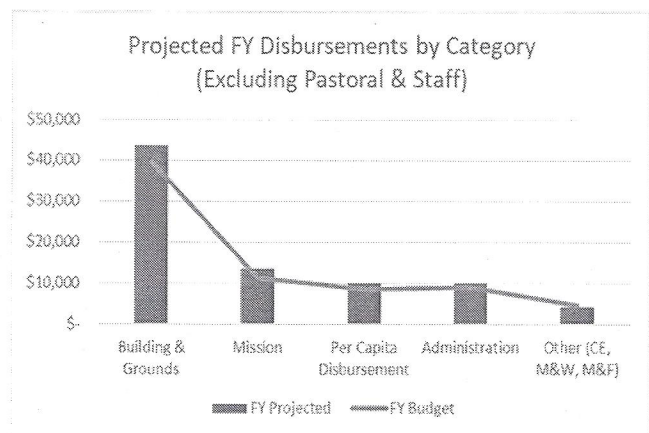

I am watching the ice fall on the afternoon of April 15 as I prepare this update. Hopefully, this scripture will ring true by the time the May issue of the Missive is published. We are ready for flowers and singing! Not too sure about those turtle doves, though... this is Michigan, after all. Mourning doves will have to do. Tweet!

March, 2018 year-to-date General Fund receipts were $86K, compared to disbursements of $77K, leaving year-to-date receipts in excess of disbursements of $9K. This is right in line with our budget for the first quarter of the year. First quarter giving to Designated funds was $16K.

As you might expect, our second largest expenditure category (after pastoral and staff salaries) is Property, Building and Grounds. This budget bucket encompasses utilities, insurance, building and equipment maintenance and grounds care. Because Old Man Winter was determined to hang around longer than he was welcome, our expenditures for utilities and snow/ice removal were higher than budgeted in the first quarter, and also higher than in 2017.

Full year projections based on first quarter actuals and remainder-of-year budgets are showing a slight deficit of roughly $2000. Projected full year expenditures vs. budget by category are reflected in the chart at the right.

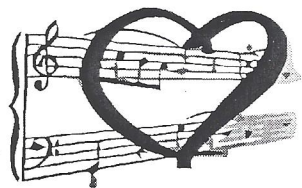

One easy way to help offset the projected deficit is to be sure to pay your Per Capita Apportionment for 2018. Historically, we only receive in about 40% of what we pay out for this line item; the balance comes out of General Fund contributions, specifically, from the Mission budget bucket. If everyone were to pay their Per Capita Apportionment ($28.98 per member for 2018), we could save almost $5K in General Fund expenditures! Be sure to use the blue envelope in your offering box, or write "Per Capita" on your check, so Faith is able to record your contribution properly.

Thank you! And have faith – summer is coming!

Do you have questions about church Finance? Just ask! We will do our best to answer all questions here or in the Friday Finance FAQ!

Sadarra Moves On

by Larry Myland

Our Chancel Choir director, and former children's and youth choir director, Sadarra Fields, has resigned with regret. She started here on September 27, 2015 and has been a congenial, supportive, productive and expert staff member.

Our former choir director at the time, Amanda Bistolfo, had just resigned upon her WMU graduation in order to accept a music-teaching position in California. Dr. Kimberly Dunn Adams, WMU's choral music head, had helped us find Amanda, and she came to our assistance once again when she recommended Sadarra. She was an ideal candidate.

It didn't take long for us to warm to Sadarra and for her to fall for this church. That's the main reason that she stayed on with us after she landed her first job as a music teacher in the Detroit-area's Winans Academy of Performing Arts. This was shortly after she graduated from the music department at Western Michigan University.

So, yes, for the last couple of years Sadarra has commuted from Detroit every Sunday in order to be here to direct the choir. Occasionally she has stayed at her parent's home, in Lansing, to shorten her early morning Sunday drive, but most of the time she drives straight from Detroit. This commitment has taken its toll on Sadarra both professionally and socially. Her last Sunday here will be on Trinity Sunday, May 27, two years and eight months from the day she started.

In addition to her teaching responsibilities at Winans, Sadarra is also a member of the renown Brazeal Dennard Chorale, an internationally known choral group whose membership is via audition. Recently, she also soloed with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in Undine Smith Morre's "Scenes from the Life of a Martyr."

Godspeed, Sadarra.

We expect you to stop by whenever you're in the neighborhood.

The Worship and Music Committee, working with the Personnel Committee is looking for a Chancel Choir Director, to begin in the Fall.

If you, or someone you know, might have an interest in this position, please contact Larry Myland or Mark Jennings, NO LATER THAN MAY 10th.

Thank you

Presbyterian Women ~ Birthday Offering

May 6th

In 1922, to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the Woman's Auxiliary (PCUS), it was decided that an offering should be made for a definite cause. That year, Hallie Paxson Winsborough, superintendent of women's work, visited Miss Dowd's School for Girls in Kochi, Japan. She challenged members of the Woman's Auxiliary to give one penny for each year of their lives (or a dollar if a woman preferred not to reveal her age) as a birthday gift to the school. The tradition continued when the Woman's Auxiliary became Presbyterian Women (PCUSA) in 1988. The offerings have enabled a long succession of new and often innovative mission projects throughout the world.

While the projects and donation amounts have changed, Presbyterian Women's commitment to improving the lives of others has not. We continue to need broad, consistent support from Presbyterian women, men and others in the area in order to continue funding mission projects like the ones selected for 2018.

Cottage Village, a Tiny-house Community for Low-income Residents Cottage Grove, Oregon

Cottage Village will provide quality, affordable housing and a safe, structured social community for individuals and families with low or very low incomes. This Birthday Offering grant will be used to help build 13 tiny houses and a central shared-use area that will serve as a compassionate and protective community for vulnerable rural citizens.

Village of Grace Center for Physical and Spiritual Health Tegucigalpa, Honduras

This Birthday Offering grant will make it possible for the Presbytery of Honduras to purchase the Village of Grace Center for Physical and Spiritual Health near Tegucigalpa. Originally established by Presbyterian mission co-workers, the retreat center will be managed by Presbyterian women in Honduras. It will offer international hospitality for retreats, workshops and mission teams from the PC(USA), Solar Under the Sun and Living Waters for the World.

The Dwelling Place Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota

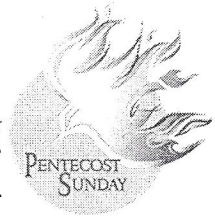

The Dwelling Place was established in 1998 to provide for the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of women and their children following their escape from a violent partner. Transitional housing, education, food, clothing, trauma-informed support services, programming and mentoring for women are all part of the mission of The Dwelling Place. This Birthday Offering grant will help The Dwelling Place purchase a vacant lot where they will construct a multi-use building with spaces suitable for large and small group programming, one-on-one case management, safe living space and staff offices. With the additional building, The Dwelling Place will be able to serve even more women and children who are seeking safety.

Please give as you have been blessed and support these life-changing projects. Feel free to hand in the enclosed envelope, or we will receive the PW Birthday Offering in church, on May 6th. An offering envelope will be in the bulletin that day. Or leave your gift on Julie's desk, marked Birthday Offering. Thank you!

*Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.
Hebrews 4:16*

Pentecost Offering

At Pentecost, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit as a bringer of new life. Because of the Spirit's coming, we no longer need to settle for "business as usual" but can know the transforming and creative love of God that makes the impossible possible. Through our participation in the Pentecost Offering, we manifest that transforming love to youth and young adults and help make things possible for children at risk.

The Pentecost Offering is one of the four annual churchwide Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Through Pentecost Offering receipts, we minister to children at risk. We assist in guiding and nurturing the faith of Presbyterian young people. We call forth a new generation of leadership in mission service through the National and International Young Adult Volunteer Program.

Forty percent of the offering receipts remain in our congregation to address the needs of children at risk. The remainder of the offering receipts will be sent to the General Assembly to support programs that benefit children at risk and ministries with youth and young adults.

The Pentecost Offering is a tangible way to demonstrate that Spirit within us! It gives us the opportunity to use 40% of the amount we receive to minister in our own community on behalf of children at risk. Through General Assembly ministries, the Pentecost Offering supports, guides, and nurtures the faith of the Presbyterian young people, calls forth a new generation of church leadership, and advocates for children at risk on a national level.

We will be receiving this offering on May 20th during worship, or you can send the church your gift, noting "Pentecost" on the memo line. You can also visit www.presbyterianmission.org/give/pentecost for information or to give online.

Thank you for your much needed support.

The Library/Family Resource Center

The CE Committee is working on a book trading section in the Library. It will work just as it does on cruise ships and hotels. If you spot an interesting book or periodical, you may take it home. To keep our shelves stocked we only ask you return it, or keep it, pass it to a friend, and return another book(s). Any time you donate a book(s) you may take another to do with as you please. The process will be totally unsupervised.

We all have a few cherished books which we wish to keep, but most of us have shelves of books which we will never read again, so why not share and save time and money?

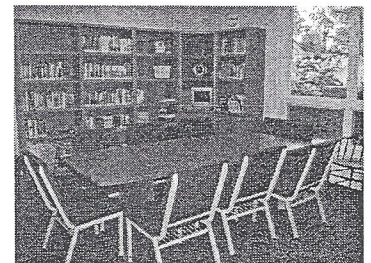

What books to donate? Fiction and non-fiction, best sellers and classics, religious and secular. The only standard is that the book must have some quality which makes it worth reading, so if your Aunt Dotie gave you Fifty Shades of Gray for Christmas — no thanks!

We also can share periodicals; we need not all subscribe to National Geographic, Smithsonian, Scientific American, Atlantic, Harper's, Mother Jones or New Republic, and dozens of others. Unlike news magazines, these have a longer useful life. You may have cut back your subscriptions because you receive more than you read in a month. Sharing would provide access without the expense.

The original library will operate normally.

Contact one of the CE elders (Sandra Gobble, Shannon Smith, Marv Hoekstra), or Mark with comments. Drop off your reading materials in Julie's office, or the library, and label them "book trade".

The Richland Farmers' Market is in its 10th year of operation, and is located on the grounds of the Richland Area Community Center, 9400 East CD Ave. The market will be open Wednesday afternoons, 3:00-6:00 p.m., May 9th to October 3rd.

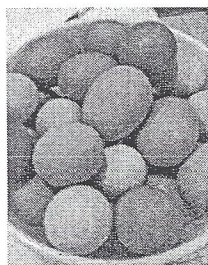

The goals of the market are threefold:

- 1) to be a profitable outlet for local farmers and craft vendors,
- 2) to create a gathering spot and opportunity for social interactions for Richland area residents,
- 3) to provide a predictable, ample selection and variety of high quality fresh, locally-grown produce and crafts for customers.

We are a proud partner of the Michigan Farmers Market Association (MIFMA) and the Food Assistance Partnership.

We will again be accepting Bridge Cards at the market; come on out and use your cards for fresh, local, healthy food.

Building and Grounds Update

We have made good progress over the past 2+ years in updating our building, grounds, and contents, and bringing them up to a good state of repair. We have established preventative maintenance and inspection systems to help us prevent unexpected and costly repairs. These systems provide the information necessary to enable us to establish planned replacement programs.

Effective May 1, 2018, Rick Foster will assume responsibility for all of our building, grounds and contents maintenance programs. This includes maintenance of the Memorial Garden, which is part of the budget of the Property Committee of Session. I will concentrate my efforts on finalizing quotes and planning for renovation of our Bell Tower, assisting the Presbyterian Women with selection and installation of a new stove that they plan to purchase for our church, and firming up plans to ensure the future of our Endowment Fund.

Blessings, Tom
